

The Orange River Canoe Adventure

A river adventure on the Orange River is more than merely a river ride. The Richtersveld area with the majestic Orange River flowing through is awesomely beautiful. We offer you days of relaxation, visual beauty, incredible sunsets, nights filled with fun around the campfire and peaceful sleep under the stars.

Location - Noordoewer, Richtersveld area - Namibia, approx. 125km North of Springbok, 680km from Cape Town.

We supply all canoeing equipment, ie. 2 man Mohawk canoes, paddles and life-jackets. Experienced guides will accompany you providing catering, safety and assistance. All catering is handled by our guides and included in the overall price are breakfasts, lunches and suppers which are all five star meals. Liquor and soft drinks are however not included in the package. Glass bottles are not allowed on the river for conservation reasons, so please decant into plastic bottles or bring cans. We also supply buckets to keep all your clothes, cameras etc. dry and provide cooler boxes for drinks.

Example Itinerary

Day 1: Arrive at "Provenance" camp after 5pm. Your first meal, dinner, will be available until 9pm. Latecomers should endeavor to settle in with a minimum of noise, please.

Day 2: After a hearty breakfast and safety briefing, guests paddle off downstream. Each night is spent under the stars on the river bank.

Day 3 and 4 as above.

Last day: Return to camp for lunch - thereafter depart at leisure. If you want to stay over, please arrange with camp management.

What is the weather like?

Generally days are sunny. Between November and February it is extremely hot so come prepared. During the winter months it can get cold at night, so warmer clothing is required. Although this venue is in the desert, rain is not unheard of.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS :

- What boats do we use?
- We use 2 man fiberglass Indian mowhawks.

- Must I bring my own Crockery & Cutlery ?
- No Felix Unit Supplies all your crockery and cutlery for the trip.

- How do mowhawks differ from crocs?
- The mowhawks are faster and more maneuverable. In a headwind they are much easier. They are also more comfortable and can carry more equipment.

- What grade is the river?
- The river is grade 1 and 2. This means nothing too big and scary. Suitable for the entire family.

- Will there be a guide to paddle me or my child?
- The guides allocated to your trip will have a lot of equipment to carry so we cannot guarantee they can fit an extra person in their boat. Should you feel you definitely need someone to paddle you down please inform us when you book, and there may be an extra charge for this service. Please note this service is not available in season. (Easter, September School Holidays, December)

- Where do we sleep?
- Your sleep in the open, under the stars whilst on river and at camp. Due to the wilderness nature of the trip there are no permanent structures at any of the campsites. However when in camp there is an option to stay in the luxury Cabanas with en-suites at an additional fee, please feel free to enquire.

- Where do I go to the toilet?
- Each trip takes a portaloos on river with them. This will be set up each night, and we use a paddle to indicate whether it is engaged or not. This will be explained to you upon arrival.

- Can I have a shower?
- You can have a shower on the first night at our base camp, and when you return to the camp on the last day. Whilst on river, you are able to bathe (using bio-degradable soap) every evening.

- How will I get back to my car after the trip?
- We will pick you up at the take out point in a bus, and transport you back to our base camp, where you left your car.

- Will my car be safe?
- There are people at the camp 24 hours.
- What is the weather like?
- From November to the end of March it can be very hot. (over 40 degrees c) A good hat and sunblock is imperative, as well as plenty drinking water. April, May, Sept, and Oct should be a little cooler. But still be prepared for the sun. June, July and August, temperatures are usually in the 20's during the day, with cooler evenings and nights. You also need to take precautions from the sun, but also need warm clothes for the evenings. It can be colder during the day, so take a light windcheater and a polypropolene.
- Does it ever rain?
- It is not common, but it does sometimes rain. Especially in the winter months,
- Should I take a tent?
- During the summer most people do not take a tent. There is however room for a small 2 man tent in your boats. During the winter it is recommended you take a tent, as the early mornings can be quite chilly.
- Who carries all my gear?
- You carry all your own gear in your boat with you, hence we use the mowhawks as they can comfortably accommodate all your gear.
- How do I keep it waterproof?
- We will provide you with 3 x 25 litre buckets between 2 people. Generally you share one bucket for both sleeping bags, and then have one each for your personal gear. These buckets are waterproof as long as they are closed properly. The guides will give you your buckets on arrival and explain to you how to close them & secure them to your boat. We do also sell dry bags at our shop at the Orange river should you feel happier using one of these as added protection for your personal goods.
- Do I need to have paddling experience?
- No you don't need any paddling experience. Your guides will give you a full briefing on how to paddle.
- Are the guides qualified?
- All our lead guides are qualified through the African Paddling Association. (APA)
- How many guides will be on my trip?
- Each trip will be led by a qualified and experienced guide. He will be assisted by a number of junior guides, with varying levels of experience and qualifications.
- We generally allocate 1 guide to every 10 guests.
- Can I get cell phone reception on river?
- No
- What happens in the case of an accident?
- All our lead guides are qualified in first aid, and carry a first aid kit with them.
- In the case of an emergency, as with any wilderness adventure, the guide will have to make his way to a phone and call for assistance from there.
- Can I drink the river water?
- Although the river water is clean and you cannot catch any diseases from it, we do not recommend you drink it. We do recommend that you bring at least 3 litres of liquid per person per day.
- How do I carry that amount of cool drink? What about my beers?
- Each boat has a cool box, with which you can carry enough cold drink and your beers for the duration of the trip.
- Can my wife just join us at night in the camp?
- Unfortunately there are only 2 access points on the river. One where you re-supply on day 2, and one where you take out.
- How many hours a day will we paddle?
- This really depends on the group. Some people paddle a lot faster than others.
- However in general you will paddle for about 6 hours a day. 3 hours in the morning and 3 in the afternoon.
- What time will we have lunch/stop in the evening?
- Again, this depends very much on the group. Your guide will decide when to stop. Generally lunch will be between 12 midday and 2pm. There are so many variants, such as the time everyone gets up in the morning, if the group wants to float or paddle hard, etc.
- What is the minimum and maximum age limits.?
- We do not advise taking children younger than 8 years of age.

- There is no maximum age limit, though obviously you have to be relatively fit to do this trip.
- How long is the drive to the river?
- Actual driving time is about 6.5 hours. Then you have ½ an hour at the border, plus the time stopping on the way up. Generally 8 hours.
- What time will we get back to camp on the last day?
- In general you should be back at the camp between 11am and 3 pm on the last day. This gives you time to drive home that evening.
- Will we travel into the Richtersveld National Park?
- Yes you do. But the scenery is so fantastic throughout the trip, it is not really a significant moment when we get into the Park.
- Will I see any wildlife?
- You will see plenty of wonderful birdlife and perhaps a vervet monkey, or baboon. There are mountain zebra, small buck and leopard in the mountains, but you are highly unlikely to see them.
- What time of year will the river be at its highest?
- The river is dam controlled so flows throughout the year. However, as it relies on the summer rainfall areas of the country for its water, it should be at its highest in March/April.
- I used to be able to get into Namibia with an id book.
- This is no longer possible, you require a passport.
- What other trips do you run on the Orange river.?
- We do run other stretches of the Orange river. These are for groups only, and generally for people who have already done our standard trip and want to try something different.
 - Fish eagle stretch
 - From our usual take out at Aussenkir, down to the Fish River Confluence. Also outstanding scenery. This section begins with a long flat stretch, but has some lovely rapids after that.
 - Nama Canyon stretch
 - Travels from The fish river confluence to Sendelingsdrif.
 - Here the scenery is less mountainous with more evidence of the diamond mining that has occurred along the river. The rapids are the most exciting of the 3 stretches.
 - Both the Fish Eagle and the Nama Canyon sections are run out of our base camp.
 - Pella Mission
 - This stretch is at a totally different part of the river. It is an exciting stretch with lots of channels to negotiate. We do not recommend this stretch of river for under 16's.
- Can I fly to Noordoewer?
- There is a small private air strip, where a chartered plane can land. Immigration has to be done at Alexander bay.
- Can I fly to Springbok?
- There are flights to Springbok, but this is still 1.5 hours drive from our camp.
- Can I fly to Uppington?
- Yes but you are still a good 5 hours drive from our camp.
- What facilities are at base camp?
- The base camp now has a 160 seater restaurant serving 3 meals per day, comprehensively stocked shop for any last minute items you may have forgotten. There is also a 24 hour internet cafe and vouchers can be purchased at the shop & bar, the bar is fully licensed and overlooks the pool and deck area. We also have a laundry facility for last minute washing.
- Cabana Accommodation available?
- There are 17 Standard Cabana's sleeping 2 each and two Family Cabanas sleeping 4 each along with the all new Luxury Honeymoon Suite. All this is available on a bed only basis and can be combined with all river trips based on availability to extend your stay or add that creature comfort whilst on adventure. All Cabanas have en-suite bathrooms, aircon and mini coffee bar stations with fridges.
